

Regarding number portability of cell phones -- this is an issue that must be resolved now. Please do not delay this proceeding.

There is no reason why cell phone carriers should be exempt from ensuring number portability. CLECs are mandated to do it, why are cell phones different.

I am in support of cell phone providers being ordered to provide number portability and willing to testify to that effect.